and worse in the hitting line. The Ne York Americans have been in the field for a month and a half, and they are in nearly as good condition as they will be in the middle of the season. None of the minor organizations anywhere in the country have yet gotten themselves in shape and they expect a walloping whenever they go up against the big leagues.

Manager Shaffer has not lost a bit of his confidence on account of Friday's game, and he says that his men will be in at the finish. If new men are needed because those he now has fall to come up to his expectations after they have been given a fair chance to prove them-selves, others will be secured, for the Richmond management is determined to have a top-notch team.

Kirkpatrick has not yet shown up very well in games, but it must be remembered that Richmond has had only three games. Kirk is young, but he has the proper stuff in him; he but he has the proper stuff in him; he is ambitious, and has every desire to get on in the world, and Captain Shafter is going to put forth every effort to incid the young fellow into a brilliant player. He is a good fielder, though he was rattled in Friday's game, and the main thing for him te do now is to attend to his batting. Heffron, Manager Shafter thinks, will make a good fielder. He struck out three times on Friday, but this game will count for little in Manager Shaffer's calculations, as he did not expect the men to show up well. In practice Heffron is doing pretty well with the stick, and if he improves he will land a berth.

win. Hand a berth.

Manager Shaffer is also confident in the ability of Kelley, who is one of the candidates for the outfield. Kelley is trying hard, and he will be given every chance to make good.

As soon as Titman gets in shape he will show up much better. He has not yet gotten his batting eye in, but it will come later on.

O'Neil is making good, and if Westlake does not soon report he will find the present second-baseman a difficult man to oust. O'Neil is showing the advantage of much experience, and he has probably played longer than any other man on the team, with the exception of the manager.

As for the catching staff, nothing can yet be said. Cowan has not yet had an opportunity of working behind the bat, and Vetter and Hinton have had to do it all. There seems to be little between these two men, and it cannot be intimated who will stay.

All of the pitching staff will be here for some time yet. Nothing can be said as to their comparative qualities until they have all had a chance of working themselves out. This will take probably a couple more weeks. Four games, are seleduled for this week. On Thesday, and Wednesday the Lawmakers will be lined up against Wilmington, Del., of the Tri-State League. On Friday and Saturday Baltimore, of the Bastern League, will be here. Both these teams are numbered among the strongest in minor organizations, and the locals will be hard put to it against the visitors.

The season opens up on April 18th, when Richmond will play Danville.

WARRENTON, VA., April 6 .- On Sat urday, March 30th, the Warrenton drag hounds met at "Woodbourne," this being the last meet advertised for the season.

The line was laid over one of the best a large field out for the last run. The hounds being laid on the line at Woodbourne, ran a merry clip across the Carter, Gaines and McCabe farms, where they came to a slight check. Quickly get-they came to a slight check. Quickly getting on the line again, they ran across "Oakwood," and were called off near the Bear Wallow Road.

Amongst those well up at the finish were F. A. B. Portman, M. F. H.; Mrs. Maddux, Mrs. Portman, Mrs. Labouisse, Mr. Thyron, J. D. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Keith, Miss Howe, Mrs. King and Miss Herbert. In all there were nine ladies and about fifteen men out, all finishing well up.

Miss Herbert. In all there were nine ladies and about fifteen men out, all finishing well up.

On Tuesday the annual hunt races were held on the Clifton farm. There were four races over a stiff, natural country, and although there were two or three falls, no one was hurt. The weather was fine, and although a trifle cold for the onlookers, was good for horses and riders.

In the evening there was a cotillon at the town hall, which every one enjoyed, and it was in the small hours of the morn before the majority were willing to seek their homes.

On Wednesday the master, by special request, gave an extra drag hunt, starting the drag on General Spilman's farm and finished at Builturn. Hounds gave their followers a good run over a stiff plank and stone wall country.

So endeth the season 1906-07.

KING EDWARD'S CUP RACE

The President's," "Emperor William's" and "Sir Thomas Lipton's" Cups.

NORFOLK, VA., April 6.—The Jamestown Exposition yacht racing commission has formulated rules to govern the contests to be held in Hampton Roads this symmer. In the main they are the ones adopted by the Atlantic coast conference last year, and which the clubs abroad refused to take up, the only difference being the addition of the following clauses:

"In all classes of forty feet and under each yacht must be steered by a Corinthian, who is a member of a regularly organized yacht club, and must be manned by Corinthians, except that a yacht of a forty-foot class may carry eight professionals, a yacht of a thirty-three-foot class three profesionals, a yacht of a twenty-two-foot class three profesionals, a yacht of a twenty-two-foot class or any smaller class one professional. A yacht of a forty-eight-foot class, or of any class larger, must carry as one of its crew a member of a recognized yacht club.

"A yacht shall not be entered for a race under more than one rig. Each yacht entered for a race under more than one rig. Each yacht entered for a race must be the bona fide property of, or under charter to, the person in whose name she is centered, who must be a member of a recognized yacht club. A person chartering a yacht, shall be considered as the owner, but no yacht which has been chartered shall be entered for a race unless she has been chartered in good faith for a period of not less than thirty days."

The King Edward Cup will be open for competition among the twenty-two-foot sloops, the President Roosevelt Cup will be for twenty-seven-foot sloops, the Sir Thomas Lipton Cup for 57-, 68- and 82-foot sloops and Yawis, and the Emperor William Cup for schooners. There will also be special contests for Chesapeake Bay cances and Chesapeake Bay 'hug-eyes.' Then, in addition to the above races, there will be contests for Chesapeake Bay cances and chesapeake Bay 'hug-eyes.' Then, in addition to the above races, there will be contests for Chesapeake Bay cances, there will be contests for the exposition cups in which sc

Baseball Notes

Doyle, who pitched the game Fri-He went to the New York Americans last August, and pitched several games for them last season. He will probably not be worked very much this season, as he is a young pitcher, and will be given plenty of time in which to prove himself. Before he went to the New York Americans he was with Wheeling, W. Va., in the West Virginia League champions and the Brooklyn Nationals was declared off. The Superbas left this afternoon for the New York Americans he was with Wheeling, W. Va., in the West Virginia League.

Doyle has very much the same style that characterizes the work of Stanley, who went to the New York Americans last season, and was this year farmed out to Montreal. Both men are heady and fast workers, though Doyls is the better pitcher of the two. Several times in yesterday's game Doyle had twa and three, but he never failed to

Rules to Govern the Contests.

Wa and three, but he never failed to his last chance, which he invariably made a curved ball.

The batters would wait for him, but it always meant a strike-out. He struck out fourteen men in yesterday's game, and allowed only four hits, none of which counted for anything. Doyle is a young picker, but he has in him the stuff which made such men as Chesbro and Al. Orth and others of that lik.

This is only the second year for Thomas in big league work, but already he is putting himself into a class with McGuire. This is McGuire's twenty-third year at the business, and he is as good to-day as he was a score and three years ago, when baseball writers clased him as the greatest catches of his day. McGuire is good for many years yet, as he is still hale and hearty.

The Yankees went from here to Ronnoke, where they will play on Monday. After that they go to Baltimore, where they play and Wednesday, and where they play Tuesday and Wednesday, and where they will join the regulars, who are playing in Atlanta today. The regulars will play in Lynchburg on Monday.

The New Yorkers will begin a four-day series in Washington on Thursday, and will go from that city to New York to open the season on April 16th.

Neither Derby nor Mulhall, both of whom pitched for the Richmonders in Friday's game, was in fit condition. Derby's arm was so sore that he could hardly get the ball up to the plate, and, naturally, he was an easy mark for the Americans. Otherwise, the latter, most of whom are pitchers, who are not expected to do much in the hitting line, would not have been able to line them out with such effectiveness. Riggs was the only fielder in the line-up.

Thomas and McCuirc are catchers, and the rest of the team are pitchers. Barger was not in the came, owing to a sore finger. He was to have pitched, but Doyle, was put in his place.

Doyle, was put in his place.

It is reported that Hobbs, who pitched for Emporia last year, has been signed up to go with the New York Americans. Hobbs is a big league pitcher, working in minor leagues. Every city in the Virginia State League tried to get his services last year, but he steadily refused them all. He is a big fellow, and has speed enough and to spare.
